Letter From the President

Hello Members,

I hope you all have been enjoying this gorgeous fall, I certainly have. Unfortunately fall does not last forever and soon it will be cold and snowy. However we can look forward to our Holiday Party on December 13, a time when we can get together and enjoy each other and the tasty appetizers and desserts you all contribute.

The invitation is included in this newsletter.

Our October speaker prompted me to look on www.aauw.org, the national AAUW web site to see if anything was written about Hispanic/Latina women. Under the leadership tab there is a current article “Qué Pasa USA? The State of the Latina” reviewing Latina’s or the lack of in government. Under the Economic Justice tab I found the following article, “How Would You Like to Work the Same Hours for Half the Pay? That’s the Gender Pay Gap for Latinas.” Both these articles are eye opening and well worth reading.

Barb Lathroum, tonya thames-taylor and I recently attended the Eastern District Meeting and heard a very informative session on Gender Equity. See Barb’s summary in this newsletter.

Look on our web site, wccc-pa.aauw.net, for minutes of our August 27th Board Meeting. We will continue to post minutes after they are approved by the board. You are all invited to attend board meetings held after and before the first Tuesday of each month except December.

The revised By-laws that Fran Pierce and Jean Speiser have worked so hard on are being emailed to you in three parts. Please read and comment. After all parts are distributed and commented on, we will vote on acceptance in a membership meeting.

We need a photographer. Everyone enjoys seeing photos in the newsletter, but we do not have anyone designated to take them. If you like to take pictures, please bring your camera to the membership meetings. Photos at other events such as FIG would also be welcome. Be sure to save the date for our February 13 Brunch, always a fun and informative event.

Our January Program: Self-defense for Women

When Mimi and I reviewed the suggestions for programs last summer, we found one for self-defense for women. Every woman needs a few techniques to fight off an attacker! Great idea, we thought. I knew exactly whom to ask to present the program. My daughter-in-law, Christina Kaufmann, is quite an expert on this topic and will be our presenter for our program on January 13.

Chriztie works as an instructor for the Rising Sun Martial Arts (RSMA) school in Rising Sun, Maryland. She also handles marketing for the school, manages demonstrations for special occasions, runs a summer camp, and gives private lessons. Chriztie began her training as a teenager, and after sixteen years of practice, recently was awarded her 5th degree black belt. This honor gives her the prerogative of opening her own school as its Grand Master should she ever choose to do so.

There are several styles of martial arts in the United States, most of which are derived from Japanese and/or Korean practices. The style taught at RSMA is mixed martial arts, which includes elements of Tae Kwon Do, Ninpo, Aikijujitsu, Kyoshujitsu, and Verbal Judo.

Chriztie plans to show us how even the smallest woman can use brain against brawn to defend herself if attacked. Every woman needs to know how to disable an attacker with a few simple moves. Wear something comfortable! This may prove to be the most fun and valuable program of the year!

Eva Kaufmann

SAVE the DATE!

Our annual brunch meeting will be on Saturday morning, February 13.

Dr. Juliana Mosley, Vice President of Student Affairs at Lincoln University will be our speaker. Her topic will be race matters.

More details will be in the next newsletter!

Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania, our Gateway to Equity organization this year

United Way of Chester County has recognized Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania as its 2014 Partner Agency of the Year. Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania provides free, high quality civil legal assistance to low-income and senior residents of a four-county area that includes Chester, Bucks, Montgomery and Delaware Counties. United Way of Chester County cited Chester County's Legal Aid for offering legal assistance to the community and noted that Legal Aid increased its outreach through United Way's Financial Stability Center with monthly legal clinics and educational workshops.

Fundraising Update

We have just concluded our first fundraiser "Snackin in the USA". All orders will be distributed at the Nov. 11 meeting. If you cannot make the meeting, other arrangements will be made. Coming in February is a Pampered Chef Fundraiser slated for February 16th with a snow date of February 23rd. We will keep you informed of the details as we move closer to the date. For now, please put it on your calendars.

Lastly, please remember we continue to collect used ink cartridges so bring them to the meetings and they will be recycled in the Staples Reward Program.

District East Meeting

By Barbara Lathroum

On October 3rd, Sue Johnston, tonya thames-taylor, and I attended District East Meeting at Cedar Crest College in Allentown. The meeting was comprised of two sessions: one on public policy for gender issues presented by Carol Tracy, Director of the Women's Law Project headquartered in Philadelphia, and one on influencing public policy makers using personal narrative. Susan McNamara and Toni Hoffman, who chair Legislation and Public Policy for AAUW-PA, presented the second session.

Carol Tracy began by explaining what Women's Law Project (WLP) has accomplished and what it is now doing in Pennsylvania and the nation to improve economic security, health, and political representation for women. Pennsylvania was rated 32nd in the nation for gender equity as revealed by a recent Kaiser Health Survey. Our state was given the grade of D+ for women's economic autonomy, D in political leadership, and F for progress in women's health issues.

There is a glimmer of hope in the Pennsylvania legislature for women's health, however. Rep. Dan Frankel revived Women's Health Caucus. According to Women's Law Project (womenslawproject.org), Women's Health Caucus is "a bipartisan, pro-choice group of lawmakers committed to promoting evidence-based policy solutions to real problems facing Pennsylvania women and families". This group recently drafted a legislative package of bills called Pennsylvania's Agenda for Women's Health.

Ms. Tracy also discussed the under-reporting of rape, estimating that 40% of rapes are never reported. While rape kits are collected, most languish unprocessed in police department storerooms. Victims are interrogated, but many rapes are never investigated. Despite the WLP's successful challenge to the FBI's definition of rape and the subsequent broadening of that definition, police may arbitrarily classify sexual assaults as "non-criminal cases" with comparatively mild sentences, if any. Ms Tracy recommends we view the documentary "The Hunting Ground", which was released last February to select theaters and available on YouTube, Netflix, and other venues. It should be broadcast on CNN sometime this month. (I have not been able to find out exactly when.) The documentary is an expose of rapes on campus, institutional cover-ups, and disturbing social consequences for the victim.

The second session of the day concerned in part a technique for more effective advocacy of public policy called webbing. The technique involves identifying persons of influence in one's community and then connecting each person to organizations and other individuals with whom he/she has strong associations. Toni and Susan emphasized the power of personal narratives when we use them to persuade. Another public policy initiative for AAUW-PA is to Get Out The Vote. Toni and Susan would like to see branch members registering voters all year long every year. They created a helpful chart as a tool for persuading voters to vote in the off years. Sue sent this chart to all members in early October.

What a pleasant and stimulating way to spend a drizzly, dreary Saturday. I encourage more members to attend regional meetings.

Did you know?

Because our members are so important to us, we want to keep in touch. Do you know of a member who needs to receive a get well note or card of support?

Please contact our Corresponding Secretary – Rosemary MacDonald – rosemary.macdonald@verizon.net with the information.

GETT and PETT

GETT Ready for GETT 2016!

Can you believe it has been 16 years since I sat around a table at CB Technologies representing AAUW and discussing how and why we should encourage girls to pursue IT as a career choice?

The 16th year of Girls Exploring Tomorrow's Technology -- is in the planning stage. GETT will take place on Saturday, March 12, 2016 at West Chester East High School. Registration will open on February 14th, 2016. Mark your calendars and set aside those days to be a part of the best GETT ever.

We are opening the event to 600 girls in grades 5-10 for the hands on sessions, with the hopes of encouraging girls in grades 11-12 to attend as student ambassadors. Last year's EXPO was so successful that we are expanding it. Because of last year's feedback, the EXPO will be in the gym at WC East. AAUW had a great table last year with Donna Golden and her *Volunteers** making polymer balls. We are invited back again this year and will be calling for your help for the event itself as well as for help at the EXPO table.

If you are not familiar with GETT, it is a one day event held within Chester County to encourage girls and their parents and educators to pursue careers in STEM. It is, and has always been, a hands-on venue to show girls that they can do anything they set their mind to do. For more complete information and a video of last year's GETT, you can go to <http://www.GETTPA.org>. AAUW West Chester-Chester County has been an important part of GETT for 16 years, providing volunteers, research studies, and funding. AAUW's branch board has, once again, pledged $500 to GETT 2016.

I will be stepping back as lead chair on the Parent/Educator Committee. Instead, I will mentor and assist the new chairperson. In an upcoming meeting I will ask for volunteers. If you have questions regarding GETT or suggestions for a hands-on activity that we can provide at the EXPO, you always can contact me at pangea49@comcast.net.

*Note for Volunteers:

Pennsylvania has implemented a new law regarding any volunteer who has contact with children. Certain individuals, in order to work or volunteer with children, are required to obtain clearances that may include the following:

- PA Child Abuse History Clearance
- PA State Police Criminal Record Check
- FBI Criminal Background Check

To learn which clearances you need to volunteer or work with children go to <http://www.KEEPKIDSSAFE.pa.gov>. Be prepared if you ever are asked to work with children. Background check fees have recently been waived for volunteers. For employment purposes the fee has been reduced from $10 to $8.

Individuals seeking clearance can go directly to <https://www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis/public/home> to create an individual account and apply for their child abuse clearance electronically. Organizations also can manage PA Child Abuse History Clearances online for their employees and volunteers at the same website.

I am researching how to manage clearances as an organization, since we have other opportunities that may occur in the future.

I am looking forward to working with each and every one of you.

Mary A. Smith, STEM Liaison
