Women's Programs At Local Universities

Wednesday, April 9, 2014
Grove United Methodist Church
490 West Boot Road
West Chester, PA

7:00 PM Networking and Nibbles
7:30 PM Program

We will hear from a panel of women students attending local universities. We have asked them to talk about topics that interest them concerning their experiences at school and anticipate a wide-ranging variety of subjects. They will be joined by Dr. Karin Gedge, Professor of History at West Chester University.

Emalee Lally, a Political Science Major at West Chester University, will talk about her experiences at last year's National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL). Emalee was a 2013 NCCWSL recipient and was featured along with other PA recipients in the February PA Keystoner. Emalee credits NCCWSL with giving her "ideas, lessons and inspiration to keep learning and growing."

Fran Pierce, our West Chester University Liaison, will facilitate the program. Fran has been coordinating activities with our WCU student liaison, Felicia Orendorff from the Association for Women's Empowerment (AWE). AWE is a club of WCU's Women's Center. The mission of the Women's Center is to promote a campus community that values the safety, equality, and intellectual advancement of women at West Chester University. (http://www.wcupa.edu/ services/stu.wce/)

Come and learn about issues and education that today's young women encounter in college whether as part of a formal program or not.

Refreshments will be served by TIG.

From the Co-Presidents

Dear Members,

Spring is here! And our March Program with Lisa Roper from Chanticleer Garden was a wonderful way to give us a head start into the spring season. I'm looking forward to visiting this lovely and whimsical garden.

I recently came across a picture of a group of women standing in front of a banner with the words - "Equal Pay for Equal Work Regardless of Sex." The picture was taken at a San Diego, California Labor Day Parade. The date - 1910! Women continue to earn on average 77% for every dollar a full time male worker earns. (U.S. Census Bureau, 2012) AAUW is at the forefront of advocating for pay equity.

Pay Equity Day is April 8th and our branch will join the West Chester University (WCU) Women's Center and the Association for Women's Empowerment (AWE) at West Chester University for a day of fun activities to educate students about the continuing pay gap between men and women. The color of the day is RED to symbolize that women are still in the red compared to men's wages. If you can help for an hour or two, please contact Ann Duerr. Many thanks to Fran, the LAPP Committee, AWE and the Women's Center for organizing this event.

Dorothea and I are looking forward to the AAUW-PA Annual Meeting in Gettysburg, PA. We are excited that Mary Smith has been invited to be part of a STEM initiative panel to speak about PETT and Ann Duerr will share the highlights of our focus on Human Trafficking at a Public Policy Session. We'll share more details about the Annual Meeting in our May newsletter.

As I write this letter, we are into the search for elected and appointed officers for the next program year. If you are asked to serve as an officer on the board or to chair a committee, Dorothea and I hope you will consider taking advantage of this new opportunity. With your talents, ideas, creativity, organization and commitment, the branch will continue to grow, and together we can make a positive difference and improve the lives of women and girls.

Sincerely,
Sandi Kwisz & Dorothea Lavigne
Co-Presidents

Named Gift Honoree

The Board is happy to announce Mary Pinkney as our Named Gift Honoree! The named gift honoree program honors members for their contributions to the mission of AAUW. Mary is a long-standing member who has participated in many AAUW activities and continues to be an active contributor to the Great Decisions and Literature One Group. At 100 years old, Mary continues to be a role model and inspiration for all!

We were able to select a Named Gift Honoree based on the amount of our 2013 contributions to AAUW Funds from both the branch and individual branch members. AAUW Funds is the umbrella name for the philanthropic opportunities within AAUW that support the 501(C)(3) work. The Funds include: the Educational Foundation, the Legal Advocacy Fund, and the Eleanor Roosevelt Fund for Women and Girls. Each $500 contributed per year to AAUW Funds entitles a branch to select a Named Gift Honoree. Our total for 2013 was $975!

Join Us for Equal Pay Day – April 8

Equal Pay Day this year has been calculated to be Tuesday, April 8. This is the date when women in the U.S. will have earned what men earned by December 31 of 2013, since it takes women an extra 38 days to earn the same amount that men earn in a year!

This year we will once again partner with West Chester University in our efforts to educate citizens about the continued pay inequities in this country. On April 8, we will have an interactive tabling event at Lawrence Dining Hall on the campus of WCU. Together with the student group, AWE (Association for Women's Empowerment) we will conduct an interactive survey by asking students and staff if they believe that equal pay for women is still an issue in the U.S. today. In order to answer this question, participants will take a marker and place it into a plexi-glass beaker, indicating "yes" or "no."

Participants will be given a free treat – provided by our branch – if they participate in the survey. Attached to the treat will be a short bit of information about the continued existence of gender pay inequity, which we hope will help to raise the consciousness of the campus community about this issue.

WE NEED YOUR HELP! Please contact Ann Duerr at waduerr@verizon.net to volunteer to staff the table or to donate treats.

April 26 - New York City Bus Trip Fund Raising Trip

Spring is around the corner so why not join us for a fun day in New York City, April 26th. Please see attached form on Page 8 with all the details. The bus holds 56 passengers, so it is first come first serve. Don't wait to reserve your seat! Your friends and family are also invited.

Legislation and Public Policy (LAPP) By Ann Duerr

Hurrah for Lilly Ledbetter's quote: "Giving women my Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act without the Paycheck Fairness Act is like giving them a nail without the hammer."

Lilly's fight began when after almost 20 years of working at Goodyear, she received an anonymous note that she, the only female supervisor, was paid 40% less than male peers. She filed a gender discrimination lawsuit in 1998 that went to the US Supreme Court. In 2007, the Court said she had been paid unfairly long enough to make it legal! She joined AAUW to lobby Capital Hill for a legislated fix that took place in 2009 when President Obama signed the Lilly Ledbetter Pay Act, restoring employee's right to sue for discriminatory paychecks.

In the last five years, Lilly has traveled the country urging members of Congress to act on fair pay and elect those who will act. She serves as honorary public policy chair for AAUW in her home state of Alabama.

She never received a dime of back pay owed by Goodyear; her retirement benefits are 40% less than they should be. She urges young people to learn from her struggle." Make sure you start your employment history getting what you're entitled to. You'll never get it made up".

Be a 2 Minute Activist (check branch website) and follow Lilly's lead for the long stalled Paycheck Fairness Act which protects employees from retaliation if they share information about their wages or ask about employers' wage practices. It implements stronger deterrents to prevent discrimination in the first place.

On April 5, Dress for a Good Cause takes place at the Westtown School. Contact Carol Metzker at echmetzker@aol.com if you can donate jewelry, gently worn gowns or dressy clothes. Proceeds benefit survivors of human trafficking locally and globally.

Dawn's Place, our Gateway to Equity Award winner to be honored at the May banquet, has an informative newsletter, New Beginnings. Visit them at (www.ahomefordawn.org)

Contact your PA Rep. regarding SB 75. April 1 is Advocacy Day in Harrisburg to gain support for the anti human trafficking bill. A sample letter is available at wccc-pa.aauw.net.

LWV will have table at Exton Mall April 12 to register voters for the upcoming primary election. Let LAPP committee- Mary, Mimi, Linda, Jean, Peggy- know if you can help.

A Message from AAUW Easton Branch

Hello AAUW members,

AAUW Easton Branch is having its first ever Authors' Luncheon on May 3. We are trying many different fundraisers this year with the thought that eventually either our members will be unable to do the work associated with our annual Book Fair, or so many people are reading e-books that a Book Fair is not the best use of our time and energy.

I've attached the brochure for our luncheon and hope that you will inform your members about this worthwhile event. It is also posted on our website so the registration form can be downloaded from there. Here is the link to our website and the luncheon:
