Letter from the President

Hard to believe that we are three months into the New Year, and with that comes time for us to start planning our 2020-2021 fiscal year. Now is the time to reflect on our past to prepare for our upcoming 60th Anniversary Reception on March 29, and to plan for the future of our branch. We are excited to announce that final plans for our 60th are being made at the Crosslands in the late afternoon where light refreshments and drinks will be served. Ann Pehle, AAUW Pennsylvania State President will be our keynote speaker for this special occasion. We hope that you can join us to commemorate this special time in our branches' history. Remember to save the date and watch your e-mails for your invitation.

Each year we are tasked to select a Gateway to Equity winner that aligns with our mission statement and directs our resources to support this cause. This past year that focus has been Community Outreach through Decade to Doorways whose ten-year plan is to prevent and end homelessness. It's a collaboration of consumers, government entities, service providers, educators, healthcare practitioners, faith communities, funders, businesses, and people from the general public aiming to effectively end homelessness.

Under Decade to Doorways we sponsored and supported four shelters, Safe Harbor of West Chester, The Chester County Domestic Violence Center, CYWA, and The Friends Association. This led to the upcoming Power Weekend on March 28 where we will need at least 20 members to step up to help with the Domestic Violence Gala, and another 8 volunteers for GETT (Girls Exploring Tomorrow's Technology) a STEM program running from 11:30 to 4.30 at Great Valley High School (Mary Smith-chair). We are only asking for a couple of hours of your time for either of these two events, but through your volunteering you will be able to see firsthand how our branch is making a difference. Many of you have signed up but we are not there yet. We need your help to make these two events a success.

Recently, an e-mail was sent to you asking for nominations for Members Making a Difference, Outstanding Member, Peg Anderson Award and a Gateway to Equity winner for the next fiscal year. Please take a moment and make your selections. On page 22 and 23 of your handbook, you will see a list of all of the past winners for all four categories. When considering the Gateway to Equity winner, think about what we have done in the past and what organization to support for the next fiscal year. If you have any proposals, we ask that you e-mail them to Carol Haaf, our branch secretary along with a short descriptive paragraph. Please include their website address and why you think this group would be a good fit for us. Send your ideas and the three award nominations no later than March 1. We will create a ballot from your entries and vote on them at the March 11 meeting.

Last but certainly not least Eva and I want to welcome all of the new members that have joined our organization. We welcome your input and any experience you may have to help us establish and complete our goals for the future.

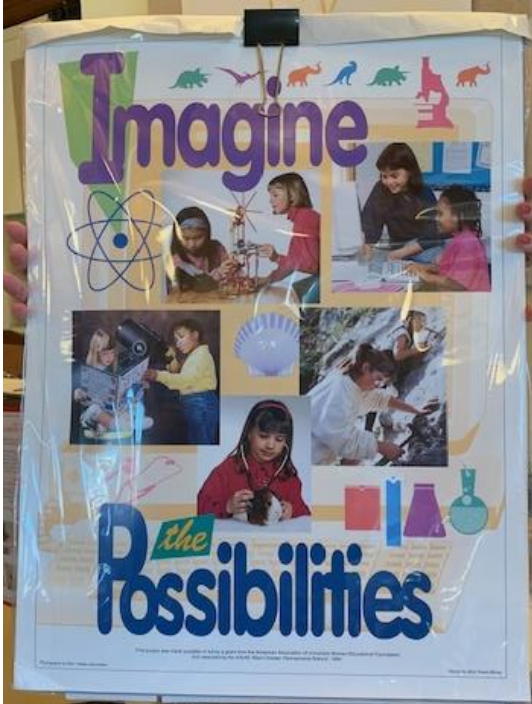

Anne Anderko
Co-President

Looking Back

--Cathy Palmquist

At the February brunch, Carla Grot gave the "Look Back", talking about AAUW's involvement in the formation of the Chester County Women's Coalition, which eventually became the Chester County Women's Commission, which functions to this day. She also talked about the poster our branch developed for schools, "Imagine the Possibilities," which pictured girls with microscopes and other scientific instruments to encourage them to seek professions' normally focused toward boys. These posters were developed in the 1980's prior to the STEM movement.

Both projects received AAUW grants: the Coalition grant was $500; the poster grant, which enabled us to produce 3,000 posters was $5,000. We shared the poster at the AAUW convention, which was well received and sought after by other branches, and even spread across the county.

Supporting Domestic Violence Center

Working together at Cathy's home for almost four hours one recent afternoon, AAUW members stuffed, labeled and sealed the invitations for DVCCC's annual gala, this year titled, "All That's Purple 2020 - Together We Can." The DVCCC is one of the four shelters for women that our AAUW branch is supporting under the Decade to Doorways umbrella, as our Gateway to Equity recipient this year. Previously members sent out Save the Date postcards, and invitations requesting donations from businesses for the gala's auctions and raffles. Members will assist with registration, placement of table tents and decorations the day/night of the gala. Members interested in helping should contact Cathy Palmquist or Eva Kaufman, if they have not previously signed up to help.

February Donations to Safe Harbor

-- Peggy Staarman and Kim Levan

The branch collected donations for Safe Harbor during the February brunch. Safe Harbor is one of the four partners of Decade to Doorways that the branch supports through its Gateway to Equity award. Decade to Doorways seeks to prevent and end homelessness in Chester County in ten years. Safe Harbor's mission is to provide housing, food, and access to support services for homeless single women and men. As usual, our branch members were extremely generous. Tee shirts, cans of tomato sauce, bottled water, toothpaste, deodorant, and lip balm were donated. In addition, $356 was collected to support this non-profit. The cost to provide shelter for one person is $45 per day, so monetary donations are greatly appreciated. Thank you so very much!

We Are Our Sisters' Keepers

-- Cathy Palmquist, Toni Gorkin

Our guest speaker was Cheryl Miles, founder of the Black Women in Chester County in Action (BWCCA), which was formed in response to The Blueprint Reports put out by the Chester County Fund for Women and Girls. The reports gave a negative picture of black women in the county, but it did not address the cause of the data or how to address it. As a result black women leaders have organized to respond to and change the situation of black women in Chester County.

Cheryl gave a very personal, thoughtful and informative talk about the status of black women and what they are doing to change their situation and issues. She noted that, while we are all the same, as human beings, black women and girls experience a large disparity in our divided culture, especially in education, economics, and health. She stressed the need to build healthy, life-giving relationships for black women and girls through mutual respect, compassion, and a sensitivity by everyone to the differences in culture, history, and personal experiences, specific examples of which she provided. (Picture by Cathy Palmquist)

RE-REMINDER: Power Weekend March 28-29

Ladies, if you haven't already done so, mark your calendars! The weekend of March 28th and 29th will be the AAUW Power Weekend!

GETT (Girls Exploring Tomorrow's Technology) is Saturday, March 28th from 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Great Valley High School in Malvern. We still need volunteers.

The Domestic Violence Center Gala

The center is one of the four shelters that we are supporting. The director, Dr. Dolly Wideman-Scott, has asked if we could provide volunteers to help out on the afternoon and evening of their huge annual Gala March 28, which raises funds that the shelter relies on each year. The SIGN-UP SHEET was sent around at the January and February meetings with specific tasks. There are still holes in the schedule; please consider volunteering for this event.

Our third event is all fun and no work: the celebration of our 60th Anniversary as a branch. This lovely event will be held in the late afternoon at Crosslands on March 29th. Please plan to attend what promises to be a wonderful affair!

Fundraising

Fill your teapot reminder

You are encouraged to use them to collect your loose change between now and May. At our May 13, 2020 banquet you will turn in your donation and your decorated teapot and we will have a contest for the most creative teapots. Still don’t have your teapot? Contact the

Fundraising Co-chairs: Trish Alfano & Marie Knox

A special thank you to all who participated in the White Elephant Raffle fundraiser that was held at the February Brunch meeting. All of the donated items were raffled off and a total of $192 was collected from the raffle ticket sales.

Celebration is in Full Swing: 100 Years of Suffrage

-- Fran Pierce and Barbara Lathroum

The Celebration is in FULL SWING! There are so many activities going on beginning in March that you will certainly be able to find several that you will want to attend! The list of events to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of Women’s Suffrage contains activities as diverse as a Gallery Talk at the Brandywine River Museum for parents with babies, to a play about Lucretia Mott and a performance by the Lincoln University Choir!

If all of this makes you curious about what might be happening in other places around the country, follow this link to the National Women’s Suffrage Centennial Commission – www.womensvote100.org. The National Commission has adopted the historic suffrage slogan, “Forward through the Darkness; forward into Light.” The National Women’s History Alliance also provides great information about events and the activities happening in each state across the nation, and about the plans of groups such as the AAUW and League of Women’s Voters to celebrate the centennial. Check out www.nationalwomenshistoryalliance.org.

All Chester County Reads

Since the fall, Pam Marquette, CCCLS adult program coordinator, and three members of both AAUW-WCCC and the League of Women Voters, Pam Gray, Barb Lathroum, and Fran Pierce, have been meeting to discuss the creation of a joint Centennial project. The result of these discussions is All Chester County Reads.

Our Branch will Kick Off our “All Chester County Reads” event in the FIRST WEEK OF APRIL in cooperation with the Chester County Library System and the League of Women Voters. Our goal is to help educate Chester County about the long fight for suffrage for women and all citizens of our country. The book we will be reading is Why They Marched by Susan Ware. A book for older elementary children and some YAs is Rightfully Ours: How Women Won the Vote by Kerrie Logan Hollihan.

In August and September, children’s librarians and volunteers from AAUW and The League of Women Voters will lead discussions. We would like to engage all 17 County libraries in this centennial celebration. The CC Library will help with promoting the project. We need volunteers for our library outreach! If you can lead a discussion of the book at your regional branch of the Chester County Library System sometime in the fall of 2020, please contact Fran Pierce (franpierce@verizon.net) or Barb Lathroum (blathroum@gmail.com). Several branch members have already stepped up to claim their local libraries – don’t be left out – volunteer for your branch right away!

Membership News: March 19 PMP

Close to 100 Members!

Our March PMP will be held on Thursday, March 19, at the home of Pat Schultz. We are at 94 members . . . only 6 members short of our goal of 100. Think about finding only a half dozen prospective members and bring them to the March PMP!

We hope that each of you will talk to your friends about our branch. Bring someone to a meeting as a guest & let them meet our group. Invite a friend to attend a special interest group with you, it's a more intimate way to get to know us. Feel free to contact either of us with any questions.

Member News and Notes

Leslie Wachob Passes

Leslie Wachob, who was our AAUW president from 2007-2009, and named an Outstanding Branch Member in 2010, passed away on February 9. She was active in many AAUW activities, most notably in FIG, which she and her husband often hosted, featuring Cajun dishes they shared from the many years they lived in New Orleans, Louisiana. We were sad to see them move to Palm Springs a few years ago to be nearer to their son. They celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary in January. Leslie is survived by her husband George and their son, Bob. As Leslie wanted, there will be no funeral or memorial service.

AAUW Member Carolyn Comitta Honored

-- Cathy Palmquist

State Representative and AAUW member Carolyn Comitta was honored by the Greater West Chester Chamber of Commerce as its 2019 Outstanding Citizen of the Year at the Chamber's 2020 Annual Banquet in February at The Desmond Hotel. In the "Chamber Chatter" newsletter article, "2019 Outstanding Citizen Brings Knowledge, Energy and Enthusiasm." Carolyn's work in Harrisburg, the local community, and internationally, were cited. After serving on West Chester Borough Council, she was elected Mayor for two terms. In Harrisburg she serves on the PA House of Representatives Committees: Aging and Older Adult Services, Environmental Resources & Energy, and Appropriations. She was appointed to the PA Commission for Women by Governor (continued on next page)

Wolf, and to the PA Joint Legislative Air & Water Pollution Control & Conservation Committee. A long-term environmental champion, she is vice-chair of the PA Climate Caucus, is committed to common-sense gun violence prevention, combating the drug epidemic and seeing that schools receive fair share funding. She is well known locally for her "Community Conversations" throughout the county. She has long been involved in several

United Nations Conferences, and is vice president and chief financial officer of Thomas Comitta Associates, the town planning and landscape architecture firm founded by her husband, Tom. In the chamber write-up, there was mention of her membership in community organizations, which listed the American Association of University Women!
